Democratic Northwest. NAPOLEON, OHIO. LOCAL NEWS, &c.

Personal.
Nick Rocht left for Chicago Tuesday.
Mrs. Samuel Groscup is visiting in Tiffin.
Miss Rood, of Oberlin, is visiting at Warren Baisleys.
Miss Lou Foust is clerking for S. M. & M. E. Heller.
Geo. Bowerman and family have removed to Liberty township.
Joe Reeder and John Heckler have purchased Reiser & Bros. meat market.
W. F. Dickerman has returned from the East where he was visiting relatives.
Mrs. Robinson is here visiting her sisters, Mrs. A. P. Saur and Mrs. Baisley.
Mrs. Remage, of Paulding, spent Monday with the family of F. M. Rummel.
W. V. McHenry, guard in the O. P. at Columbus, was home to vote Tuesday.
Henry McGuire, of Ft. Wayne, spent several days in Napoleon last week with friends.
Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Rummel entertained quite a number of their friends Monday evening.
James Reeder, of Edinboro, Pa., has been visiting with his brother G. H. Reeder, in this place.
A. E. H. Maerker, who is attending Medical College at Cleveland, spent several days at home during the past week.
Joseph Dinkle, a brother-in-law, and two sisters, from Crawford county, are visiting Peter Knupp and family in this county.
Thos. McIntosh wishes to inform his many friends that he may now be found with H. E. Cary, where he would be glad to meet all of them.
The many friends of S. M. Hague, Esq., will be pained to hear of his serious illness. He has been confined to his home for some days now by a severe attack of nervous and typhoid fever.
Daniel Fink has just returned from an extended visit to Northern Missouri. He speaks very highly of the people and the country in that locality, and has been so much taken up by both that he has about concluded to make that section his future home.
Timothy and Clover seed for sale at Bradley's.
Mr. Dickerman has just returned from New York and by Saturday next will be ready to wait on his customers as usual. All unfinished work will receive careful attention.
Ayer's Ague Cure should be in every household in regions where Fever and Ague prevail. It should be taken as a preventative by every resident and traveler in malarial districts.
Many a person would part with half his fortune, if with it he could get rid of a bad breath. Then why not expend a trifling 25 cents to test the merits of our claim, that Cobb's Little Podophyllin Pills will lessen the evil by removing the cause. For sale by Kneeland.
Fully recognizing the necessity of good stylish, nice-made and good fitting garments, Hahn & Meyer have made a specialty in this line which has been a source of an immense trade. Therefore they have supplied themselves with an assortment of piece goods which cannot be beat in this or any other place in this part of the State. They invite an inspection of their goods and prices.
PUBLIC SALE.—The undersigned will offer at public sale, at his residence in Damascus twp., 1 mile west of the county line, on Saturday, Oct. 22, 1881, the following property to-wit: 2 work horses, 1 spring colt, 1 mule colt, 2 cows, young cattle, hogs, wagon, harness, farming utensils, wheat in the ground, &c.
Terms made known on day of sale.
JOSHUA GALBRAITH.
Geo. Hospelhorn, Auctioneer.
FIXING UP FOR WINTER.—Soon the cold November winds will sweep down on us, and that too before we are aware of it, or have even made any preparations for it. We can not commence too soon to do our papering or painting; the flies are all gone, the dust is settled, the price of all kinds of material is very low, and in fact everything is most favorable for doing this kind of work. Saur has a very large stock of wall and window papers, oils, paints, varnishes, &c., on hand at his large Drug and Book Store, which he is very anxious to sell, and if good straight goods and low prices are any object to consumers who seek first-class bargains, they will certainly not remain on his hands very long. Remember the goods are warranted to give entire satisfaction.

Stoves are going up.
It is now lawful to shoot quail.
Court of Common Pleas next week.
Get-out-your-flannel-time is here.
The latest is "well I should nod to the ripple."
Jack Frost is on the lookout for house-plants.
The tin roof on the Yocke block is being repaired.
If you wish a neat fitting suit go to S. M. Honeck's.
Holgate will elect corporation officers on the 22d inst.
The street sprinkler and the ice man have had their day.
Latest styles of suitings at S. M. Honeck's, cheap for cash.
Rev. Zook preached his first sermon in the M. E. Church last Sabbath.
New goods, queensware and glassware coming in every day at Cary's.
Judge Haly issued twenty marriage licenses during the month of September.
Farmers are getting a good round price for whatever they have to sell just now.
Oscar Mann climbed to the extreme top of the new court-house dome one day last week.
The largest stock of knives, forks and pocket cutlery. All new and of best makes at Cary's.
The campaign is now over and we shall try and make our columns more interesting to the general reader.
Rev. L. F. Ames has our thanks for a basket of fine large apples, among the nicest we have seen this season.
Underwear for men and boys, by the car load, at prices so low as to astonish everybody, at Bernstein's One Price Clothing House.
The aged mother of Recorder Hartnett had the misfortune of falling and dislocating her hip on Thursday last, in Washington twp.
S. M. Honeck has received some very nobby styles of piece goods and will sell them at reasonable prices. Try him and be convinced.
If you want to keep warm this fall and winter go and get a supply of the substantial clothing sold by Hahn & Meyer at the Eagle Clothing House.
Frederick Spangler, of Marion township, has our thanks for a basket of nice Irish potatoes. Mr. Spangler reports his potato crop as good.
It is a fact that horse dealers are buying horses with ringbones and spavins because they can make money by using Kendall's Spavin Cure.
Frederick Ludeman, an old and respected citizen of Henry county, died at his residence in Napoleon township on Monday evening, after a long illness.
CARPETS AND OIL-CLOTHS.—A splendid assortment in all the new shades and designs at less than Toledo prices at D. & J. WILSON'S.
The ladies of the Presbyterian congregation held a very pleasant social at the house of Rev. Ames last Wednesday evening. The repast served did credit to the ladies.
GOOD SCHEME.—Don't buy a dollars worth of ready made clothing before you examine the mammoth stock and get prices at the Eagle Clothing House of Hahn & Meyer.
This is the last issue campaign subscribers will receive, unless they call in and notify us that they wish to continue up on our books. We should be pleased to retain all of them.
A Doctor went out for a days hunting and on coming home complained that he hadn't killed anything. "That's because you didn't attend to your legitimate business," said his wife.
Wakefulness and bad dreams in children at night induce feverishness and fretfulness during the day. Worms are generally the cause of the annoyance. Denig's Worm Syrup will cure, when all other remedies fail. Try it.
S. W. Johnson has removed his blacksmith shop from the South side to the building on Scott street formerly occupied by Sidlinger. Mr. Johnson is a good blacksmith, and his old customers will hunt him up, and new ones will come in.
Hancock, who is again located at the Boat Store, wishes to see all his old customers, and as many new ones as choose to call, at his old quarters, where he intends keeping a general stock of groceries and provisions, and everything usually found in a grocery store. Bottled ale and porter for family use always on hand.
Owing to the high price of stables of all kind, boarding house proprietors have been forced to raise the price of board to corresponding rates. This year the price of four, potatoes, butter and eggs is considerably in advance of last year's prices and all articles in the way of food have taken a rapid rise in prices.
Jas. M. Myers, on the South side, has taken the agency for the celebrated Groschup Pump, which is one of the best pumps in the market. These pumps are warranted for 6 years, and hundreds of them are in operation in Henry county. They are manufactured in Napoleon, and are exclusively a home product. Call on Mr. Myers and secure one.
Letters remaining uncalled for in the Napoleon, Ohio, Post Office for the week ending Oct. 8th, 1881:
B. P. Chroninger, O. Dautweil, Herman Dehake, Henry Hess, Lisa Jakobson, J. Kretz, Mrs. G. W. More, Miss A. Smith, Miss Mattie Vierg.
Persons calling for the above letters will please say they were advertised and give date.
JAMES S. FOUKE.
Postmaster.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will hold their afternoon mite on next Wednesday at the residence of Mrs. L. Trowbridge.
Aid for the Michigan Sufferers.
The Ladies Relief Society of Napoleon have resolved to do something towards the relief of the Michigan fire sufferers. They therefore request that all those who wish to donate towards this worthy object whether in town or country, to leave their mites at the residence of Mrs. Dave Wilson during the present and next week. Clothing, dry-goods, groceries, money, &c., will be thankfully received and duly forwarded to the proper authorities in Michigan for distribution.
It is to be hoped the ladies may be encouraged in their laudable resolve and that donations may crowd in upon them from both town and country. The sufferers from the great forest fires in Michigan, the devouring flames sweeping over whole counties in some instances, laying waste homes, stock, crops and forests, taking life in many instances and maiming hundreds and probably thousands during the remaining days of their life, all need assistance, especially so now that cold weather is at hand. Give the ladies what you can, let it be ever so small.

School Books.
School books and school supplies at lowest prices at Kneeland's.
A cold blooded murder occurred at Marion, O., Tuesday of last week. A notorious bummer named Orrin DePugh, walked up to a highly respected citizen named Frank Foster, and deliberately shot him three times, producing immediate death. There was strong talk of lynching the murderer, the police having to take him to jail at the point of loaded revolvers. On the night of the 5th DePugh hung himself in his cell. About 4 o'clock the Sheriff was passing through the corridor of the jail and was notified by two prisoners of the unusual disturbance in DePugh's cell. The Sheriff at once proceeded to the murderer's cell and found him hanging by a cord made out of the sheet of his bed, his feet drawn up and his body cold and dead. Thus ends the last act in this fearful tragedy.
Do NOT FORGET.—To call and see the new goods just coming in at Wilson's, for they have plenty of them and are selling them very low, rare bargains will be offered for the next two weeks.

An Old Friend.
He was afflicted with a lame back and general debility; he was recommended Thomas' Electric Oil which cured him at once. This famous specific is a positive remedy for, bodily pain. For sale by Saur, at Bernstein's One Price Clothing House at a little boy can buy goods as cheap as the smartest man. There is only "one price strictly" for all alike, and a very low price at that. Everything will be represented for just what it is, and sold cheaper than anywhere else, at one price and no deviation.
BARTLOW ITEMS.
Our little town is still improving.
The roads at present are somewhat muddy.
Considerable ditching in this locality at present, which will be the means of improving this part of the country.
The farmers have their wheat sown.

Remember if you intend to buy an overcoat, that Bernstein's One Price Clothing, has about seven hundred of all kinds on hand and will guarantee you a good one at from one to three dollars less than you can buy one for elsewhere.
Hahn & Meyer have a fine stock of piece goods from which to select stylish suits. Their fits are perfect and prices low.

A Happy Surprise.
Mr. Editor.—If you admit any personal experiences into your columns, we would desire to add our testimony to the verity of the adage. "This world is not so bad a world as some would like to make it." I suppose there were surprises when we first beheld the light of day, at least, we have met with them ever since our earliest remembrance.
Some surprises sadden the heart and leave unmistakable traces of their destructive influence on the human system. Others, again, are very agreeable, falling in line with our aims and purposes in life, we naturally feel a new animation of body and soul, and instinctively cry out, "you may come again." An experience of this latter class we wish to relate.
It was on Monday evening, Oct. 10, 1881, the doors of John Huddle's house having been swung widely open, that, on a sudden, great and small, old and young, came rushing in on all sides, greeting the astonished inmates with brightest smiles and many good wishes. And still they came from the East and the West in one continuous stream till their number swelled to nearly one hundred. You will not wonder at our surprise when we tell you how strange they appeared. Perhaps our own strange feelings had some bearing on the perplexing department of the visitors. They were all neatly dressed in popular costume, representing all stages of human life and all classes of general industry, there were farmers and mechanics, teachers, clerks and druggists; milliners and dress-makers, merchants and undertakers among their number, but it was their baskets and bundles so richly filled, their prodigious number and their harmonious movements that struck us with surprise, and soon convinced us that whatever might be the issue of such a gathering these were messengers of love.
The programme begins: Miss Clara Knisly ably presided at the organ while we sang a few of the songs of Zion from Gospel hymns. Prayer was offered and singing resumed in joyful spirit under good instrumental music at the hands of Misses Eva Wheeler and Sarah Gearhart.
But our friends would not have us in the days to come to forget that they had been with us, so they set up their memorials in our midst. Mr. John Huddle, being helped to a handsome easy-chair, by Mr. Patterson, was permitted to look on his happy surroundings through beautiful gold spectacles placed so dextrously astride the ridge of his nose by Miss Dora Shoemaker.
The pastor of the Evangelical Church, who finds a pleasant home in the Huddle circle, had a forcible demonstration of real "Compliments of Many Friends" by the donation of the following pleasant gifts: a few toilet articles of Mrs. Arnold Meyers; slippers for his feet presented by Miss Cora Huddle; an album for his pictures presented by Miss Dora Shoemaker; an excellent Oxford bible of the S. S. edition handed him with expressions of regard from church and friends by Mr. Leochler. The value of the gifts presented is about $25.00; as tokens of good will we know no standard of measure to express their value. The Misses Hannah Peterson, Cora Huddle and Dora Shoemaker did remarkably well in collecting these funds. We return our thanks to all the donors.
When the cry went forth from the portly Mr. Fast: "be seated and have something to eat," it was evident that the order of entertainment must be changed. Under the able supervision of Mrs. John Huddle refreshments were served in great variety and rich abundance, and we verily believe that the heart was made glad while the mouth was filled with good things. We now understood the import of those richly laden baskets. All this "merry making" to celebrate the birth day of Mr. Huddle and S. J. Gamertsfelder.
The participants have the best wishes of the recipients of their favors. May we all enjoy a happy reunion in the Sweet Beyond.
S. J. G.

A new wrinkle for raising funds for church societies is as follows: The ladies write their names and weights on slips of paper and the gentlemen draw the slips, each taking the lady to supper whose name he has drawn, and paying a half cent per pound according to the weight of the gal. If his partner should happen to overestimate her weight it is all right as it is for the benefit of the church.
If you want a necklace for your girl, call on C. M. Fisk, where you will find the finest stock ever brought to the city.
